Lap folders are the best way for children to organize information. It's been a while since you finished making the lap folder? You forgot a specific detail? No problem- look for the right minute-book that will provide you with the answer to your question.

What is a Lap Folder?

For those of you who are new to lap folders, you might be wondering what a lap folder is.

A lap folder is a folder which fits on your lap, and contains a series of little booklets called minute books. Each of these minute books covers a detail about a larger topic that has been learned. The minute book cover will often have a picture which hints to the topic learned. Inside the minute book the child writes down a narration or a summary of what he/she remembers about that subtopic. The child can also draw pictures to represent their answer or copy from their study book (or the study guide provided). Alternatively they can include a more in depth research report that they did on this topic.

On completion of all the minute books, they are attached to a large folder. The finished product is called a lap folder. It serves as an excellent tool to teach organization and a wonderful review tool that your children will enjoy referring to again and again. Because of its versatility these lap folders can really be used for a large age range. It is relatively easy to make an activity more difficult for an older child or easier to match the abilities of a younger child.

You, as the educator, can decide which activities your children will do, according to their age and ability.

Materials needed to complete the lap folder.

-Take 2-6 pages of heavy cardstock that can be any size you want but I used sizeA4.

Take the first two pages and place them next to each other. Tape them together with wide tape along the connecting seam on the front and on the back.

Fold page 2 over page 1 at the tape line, (so it is now a "closed book"). Now take a third piece of cardstock and repeat these steps attaching page 3 to page 2 at the connecting seam with tape on both sides. Add as many pieces of cardstock as you need to complete your folder.

When you finish putting together your folder, don't forget to put another strip of tape connecting the outside of the first and last pages of your folder, to finish the binding of your folder.

Using a loose-leaf with card stock pages can also work well, or use your imagination to come up with another type of folder.

-Scissors, glue, markers, crayons, stickers, glitter and anything else you want to use to decorate and personalize your folder.

-Lots of imagination

At the end of the educator section there is a sample layout of the minute books in the lap folder. You can of course lay it out many other ways. Feel free to print the activities larger or smaller to accommodate the size of your children's hands. Many of the pictures in the activities were left uncolored so that they can be colored and decorated by the child.

A note to the educator: This lap folder is divided into three sections:

1. The study guide.
2. 9 activities to create "minute books"- separate little booklets- for each topic studied.
3. A section meant for the educator, providing solutions/answers for the minute book activities to enable the educator to help guide the children.

-Another note to the educator: The bible tells us about our forefathers in very descriptive stories. I have attempted to remain true to the texts, although those stories with delicate subject matter I attempted to tell in a matter of fact appropriate fashion. It is up to your discretion to decide which stories you want your children to hear and learn.

Word to the educator

I include in the bible series a study guide consisting of short stories from the bible, but that is no replacement for actually reading the stories straight from the bible. Your child will benefit from reading the rich language the bible offers.

Most of the answers to the questions asked in this lap folder can be answered by doing copy work straight from the bible. If the biblical language is too difficult for the child then encourage the child to write the answer in their own words or even draw pictures when applicable.

Many of the pictures in the activities were left uncolored so that they can be colored and decorated by the child.

A note about the dessert recipes.

The recipes given in the bible series can be used in various ways. In my house I used the desserts at the end of each week, as a fun quiz on what we learned. The children had to guess, the connection between the dessert and the portion we studied. But it can also be used as another way to help children learn the bible stories by letting them help make the dessert and improvise it. As our motto states the best way to learn is by doing, especially if you have fun. There are many different desserts you can make. Each year I come up with different ideas for each portion since my children are already familiar with the dessert from the previous year.

Since I love to bake with the children and making cookie is always fun, I have lots of cookie cutters in different shapes. Wilton makes a large variety of cookie cutters at reasonable prices. For those of you who do not wish to purchase cookie cutters I will include templates which can be cut out, placed on the rolled out cookie dough and cut around.

Don't forget, the most important part of this, is for both you and your children to have fun.

Oh and one more thing. Many of the recipes that I have listed began their life as a recipe with white flour. I have replaced this with whole wheat flour, but they can be made with white flour if you do not have whole wheat flour on hand, or you prefer the taste of white flour.

Study guide

The Book of Bereishit (Genesis) tells about the history of the beginning of the world. The first Section tells us about how the world was created. So let's start from the beginning. On the first day the world was one big swirl of mostly blackness. The first thing God did was create the land and the skies and the light to see. He called the light day and the dark night. God was satisfied and so ended the first day of the world.

On the second day God saw that the waters on the ground reached up to the skies. He separated between the waters in the sky and the waters on the ground. He was satisfied and called it another day.

On the third day God separated between the land and the water to create oceans, seas and dry land. Once there was land he made the land grow plants of all sorts from the moss until the trees.

On the fourth day God created the sun, the moon and the stars. He put the sun to rule over the day and the moon with the help of the stars to rule over the night.

On the fifth day God created all animals -big and small -that live in the sea and in the sky. He told them to multiply and fill the earth.

On the sixth day God first created the land animals and then he created man. He created him in the form of God. He told all the animals to reproduce and fill the land. He gave them all the plants that grow as food.

But God looked at man and said it's not good for man to be by himself. He put man to sleep and performed the first operation. He put man to sleep, removed the rib from mans chest, closed man up and created woman from this rib. On the seventh day God celebrated the first Shabbat.

Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden

After God put Adam and Eve into the Garden of Eden, he told them that they were free to eat from all the plants that grew in the garden besides from one tree called the Tree of Knowledge. God warned them that if they eat from this tree they will die. Meantime both Adam and Eve were naked and thought nothing of it.

One day while Eve was walking through the garden a sly snake came up to her and said,

"Didn't God tell you not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?" Eve answered that they were allowed to eat from any plant or tree in the garden besides one tree which they were not allowed to eat or touch. Now God never said anything about not touching the tree, only about not eating from the tree. The sly snake wanted to trick her into eating from this tree.

He said to her "You won't die if you eat from this tree. God doesn't want you to eat from here because he knows that if you do you will get as smart as God".

Eve was very tempted by the fruit of the tree and by the snake's words. Finally she gave in to her temptation and took a bite out of the fruit. She also gave Adam the fruit to eat. As soon as they ate from the fruit they were enlightened about their nakedness and ran to make themselves clothes out of fig leaves. Suddenly they heard God's voice calling to them and they were so embarrassed they tried to hide from God.

God called out and asked "Where are you?"

Adam answered "I heard your voice and I was afraid because I was naked so I hid in the garden."

God asked "who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree of knowledge that I told you not to eat from?"

Adam answered "Eve made me do it."

God turned to Eve and asked her the same question to which she answered "the snake made me do it." God punished all three of them. He said that The snake would no longer walk on feet but would now have to crawl on the ground and eat the dirt from the ground, Eve would have pain when she gave birth and have a hard time raising her children and Adam would now have to work for his food. He then chased them out of the Garden of Eden before they could eat from the tree of eternal life and put up a swirling sword to prevent them from coming back in.

Cain and Abel

Adam and Eve were kicked out of the Garden of Eden and settled down to live their new life. At the beginning they had 2 children, Cain and Abel. Cain grew up and worked the land while Abel grew up and tended the animals.

It came a time when both Cain and Abel decided to bring gifts to God. Cain brought some of his fruit as a gift, and Abel brought the best of his animals. God looked at both gifts and took Abel's gifts.

Cain became very upset that his gift was not taken. He felt anger towards Abel. He started a fight with him, beat him up and killed him.

God came to Cain and asked "What happened to Abel?" Cain answered "How should I know? Am I my brother's keeper?"

God answered "Your brother's blood is calling to me from the ground. Because of what you did you will be cursed so that you will no longer be able to work the land but rather you will be a nomad wandering the land and will have to live by hunting?"

Cain complained to God that anybody who found him could kill him so God put a curse on anyone who killed Cain.

The rest of this portion basically gives us a family tree leading from Adam until Noah, 10 generations long.

The Activities:

Write about the 6 days of creation

What was created on each of the days of creation?

Day 7

Day 1

Day 2

Cut around each of these rectangles on this page and the next page, and lay them one on top of the other in the order indicated by the days with the cover on the top and day 7 last. Staple or attach on top. On each day draw a picture and /or write what was created on that day. Attach the back of day 7 to the folder.

Cut around the figure, on the solid dark line. Fold on the dotted lines. Attach tabs to folder with this side facing folder to create a pocket to hold the props for the interactive storyboard.

Cut around the three figures above. You might want to print them on card stock or glue them onto cardboard as they may get a lot of wear and tear. Color in the pictures in the squares as you would imagine the Garden of Eden looks like. Next cut out the squares below and on the following pages, and attach the props as instructed. Place characters on each square based on the speech prompts. Attach the squares in the proper order to the folder. Start telling the story of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden while moving the characters from square to square.

You may eat anything besides the fruit of this tree

Go ahead eat from the tree.
God knows you will become smart like him if you eat from it, that's why he doesn't want you to eat from it.

Cut out the 4 fig leaves at the side. Place them in pairs gluing or stapling them at the sides leaving enough room to slide Adam and Eve into each one to make them clothes. If it is too difficult to cut exactly on the line just cut around the leaves.

Oh No! we are naked, Lets sew
some clothes from these leaves

Cut out black line above the bush to make a slot to slide in Adam and Eve so that they can hide in the bush. Attach the figure to folder by the bottom and the sides leaving the middle unattached so there is room for Adam and Eve in the slot.

Cut out the 2 swords at the side and attach them in the middle by a metal paper fastener to create the effect of the twirling swords which god put in front of the Garden of Eden to keep Adam, and Eve and everybody else from entering the garden. Attach figure by the edges and leave center unattached so that paper fastener has some room. (Attach paper fastener before attaching the figure to the folder).

3) What is the difference between what God commanded about the tree of Knowledge and what Eve claimed he commanded?

Cut around the figure on the solid dark line. Fold on the dotted line so that the picture faces up. Write your answer inside the booklet in your own words or do copy work from the bible. Attach this side of booklet to folder.

What is the difference between what God commanded about the tree of Knowledge and what Eve claimed he commanded?

4) What Punishment did God give to Adam, Eve and the snake?

Cut around figure on the solid line and on solid lines between the pictures of Adam, Eve and the snake. Fold in half on the dotted line so pictures face up, and fold on the dotted lines above each picture to create 3 flaps. Under each flap write the appropriate punishment in your own words or copying from the bible.

What Punishment did God give to

The snake

Adam

Eve

5) Cain and Abel's gifts to God. Who gave which gift? Which was accepted? Why do you think that one was accepted?

Cut around figure on solid dark line, color in. Fold on dotted line so that picture faces up, and write your answer inside the booklet. Attach this side to the folder.

Cain and Abel's gifts to God. Who gave which gift? Which was accepted? Why do you think that one was accepted?

6) What did God ask Cain and what did Cain reply?

Cut around figure on the solid dark line .
Fold on the dotted line
so that the picture faces up. Write your answer inside the booklet. You can either do copy work from the bible in Hebrew or English or just write in your own words.

What did God ask
Cain and what did
Cain reply?

7) What was Cain's punishment?

Cut around the figure. On the solid dark line. Fold on the dotted line so that picture faces up. Write answer in booklet in your own words or copying from the bible. Attach this side to folder

What was Cain's punishment?

8) What does the last part of our portion talk about?

Cut around the figure on the solid dark line. Fold on the dotted line so that picture faces up. Either just write the answer in your own words or draw the basic family tree inside the booklet. Attach this side to folder.

What does the last part of our bible portion talk about?

Creation
Dessert

Recipe for cake

You can use your favorite cake recipe but I'll give a recipe that we use a lot as well.

- 2 cups of sugar
- 1 cup of oil
- 4 eggs
- 1 cup of juice or water
- 3 cups of whole wheat flour
- 1/8 tsp salt
- 3 tsp baking powder
- 2 tsp vanilla

Cream the 2 cups sugar with the oil. Add one egg at a time beating well after each one. Add all dry ingredients together and rest of wet ingredients. While mixing add the dry and wet ingredients alternating between them.. Pour into a large round baking pan (until it is ~2/3 full). Bake at 375 degrees Fahrenheit for around 45 minutes until cake bounces back when pressed and it is golden brown on top. It rises high so don't fill the pan too high.

1

After cake is finished you can either draw the figures with cream on the top of the cake or make sugar cookies (like in picture) and shape them into the shapes. I have lots of fun cookie cutters to use but you can also cut the shapes out with a knife after rolling the dough. Here is the cookie recipe.

- 1/2 cup butter, margarine or oil
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1 3/4 cup whole wheat flour
- 1 Tbsp milk, or juice or water
- 1/2 tsp Vanilla
- 1/4 tsp salt

Add flour to dough if it is too sticky.

Cream the butter/oil/margarine with the sugar. Add rest of ingredients. Mix, add water if dough is too crumbly until dough is smooth. Roll out and cut shapes. Bake at 375 degrees Fahrenheit for 12-15 minutes or until cookies are golden brown.

Crème::

- 3 Tbsp oil
- 3 Tbsp cocoa
- 1 Tbsp honey
- 1/2 tsp vanilla
- 1 cup confectioners sugar
- 1-2 Tbsp juice or water.

For white and different colored creams leave out the cocoa and add 3 more tbsps of confectioner sugar.

For red cream add 1tbsp strawberry juice as juice.

For blue cream add 1 Tbsp blueberry juice as juice.

Place the cream in a plastic bag, Cut a small hole at the corner of the bag, Tie the bag, and squeeze the cream through the hole to draw the picture. Or use store bought decorating cream.

2

Either divide cake top into 7 parts (one for each day of the week) and draw on top of the cake with home made cream. Or store bought or use cookies like in the picture.

Day 1

For light and dark draw half of a big round cookie with white cream and half with chocolate cream.

Or do the same on 1/7th of cake top, make 1/2 colored in chocolate cream and 1/2 in white cream.

Day 2

Either take a large round cookie and color the top third and bottom third in with blue cream and the middle with white cream or do the same with the second seventh of the cake.

Day 3

Either take a big round cookie, and color the top part with blue for the sky, and the bottom part color part of it with brown cream for the ground and a different shade of blue for the sea. You can stick green sprinkles on the brown for grass and plants.

Day 4

If you have cookie cutters than cut out the shapes of a moon, sun and star from the cookie dough and color them appropriately. Otherwise on the next seventh of the cake draw pictures of the sun, moon and stars.

Day 5:

either cut out shapes of birds and fish from the cookie dough or draw them on the next seventh of the cake with appropriate colored creams

Day 6

Same as day 5 only make shapes of people and animals

3

Day 7

Out of the cookie dough, make 2 braids to look like Challah (the special bread we eat on Shabbat), or draw a picture of a wine goblet or 2 candle sticks on the last seventh of the cake top.

Cut around all 4 figures on the solid dark line. Attach them together by the tabs in the order listed. Fold like a fan on dotted lines. Attach this side to lap folder.

Genesis 2:6 And the Lord God gave the man orders, saying, You may freely take of the fruit of every tree of the garden: 17 But of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you may not take; for on the day when you take of it, death will certainly come to you. 3

Genesis 1:14 And God said, Let there be lights in the arch of heaven, for a division between the day and the night, and let them be for signs, and for marking the changes of the year, and for days and for years: 15 And let them be for lights in the arch of heaven to give light on the earth: and it was so. 16 And God made the two great lights: the greater light to be the ruler of the day, and the smaller light to be the ruler of the night: and he made the stars. 17 And God put them in the arch of heaven, to give light on the earth; 18 To have rule over the day and the night, and for a division between the light and the dark: and God saw that it was good. 19 And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day. 1

Genesis 1:20 And God said, Let the waters be full of living things, and let birds be in flight over the earth under the arch of heaven. 21 And God made great sea-beasts, and every sort of living and moving thing with which the waters were full, and every sort of winged bird: and God saw that it was good. 22 And God gave them his blessing, saying, Be fertile and have increase, making all the waters of the seas full, and let the birds be increased in the earth. 23 And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day. 1

17 And to Adam he said, Because you gave ear to the voice of your wife and took of the fruit of the tree which I said you were not to take, the earth is cursed on your account; in pain you will get your food from it all your life. 18 Thorns and waste plants will come up, and the plants of the field will be your food; 19 With the hard work of your hands you will get your bread till you go back to the earth from which you were taken: for dust you are and to the dust you will go back. 4

Genesis 4:3 And after a time, Cain gave to the Lord an offering of the fruits of the earth. 4 And Abel gave an offering of the young lambs of his flock and of their fat.
